Daegan Layman

Writer, creative strategist and researcher

Oklahoma City, OK (remote or on-site) daegantassey@gmail.com daegan97.github.io

I turn audience and market research into ad concepts, briefs and long-form writing, and I build the systems that let a team move faster. M.S. in Criminal Justice (Fraud Management), and 8+ years of teaching and tutoring, explaining complex ideas to students, families and clients.

Experience

Creative Strategist
2026 – Present

Crown Cards (freelance)

- Write direct-response concepts, hooks and scripts for Meta campaigns: 180+ static concepts and 140+ video briefs designed, with creative that has run on $49K+ in ad spend and driven 2,500+ installs.
- Find angles through ad-library teardowns, review and Reddit sentiment analysis, and awareness mapping, then iterate on winners with CPI and ROAS data; one low-fidelity static reached ~$10 per install, among the team's lowest.
- Built the team's operating backbone on my own initiative: a master resource folder, an onboarding doc, a faster briefing process, and AI-assisted workflows (Claude, ElevenLabs, Gemini).

Advanced Child Welfare Specialist III
2026

Oklahoma Department of Human Services

- Investigated specialty-level cases involving domestic violence, child deaths and near deaths, interviewing victims, alleged perpetrators, collateral contacts and providers to assess child safety.
- Connected families to mental health, food, housing and other support services.

English Teacher
2025

Le Monde International

- Designed and taught a combined 6th–8th grade English Language Arts course aligned to Oklahoma standards for all three grades.
- Built curriculum and projects, taught in lecture and small-group settings, and supported the Chess and Art clubs.

Math Teacher
2023 – 2024

Longfellow Middle School

- Promoted from resource-room paraprofessional to teacher of 8th grade Pre-Algebra and Math Applications.
- Built curriculum and projects, and led the Dungeons & Dragons club and co-led the Guitar club.

RICCT Care Navigator
2023

NorthCare

- Provided case management and rehabilitation services to people re-entering the community after incarceration.
- Connected clients to housing, financial and health support, and advocated for them with providers.

Private Tutor
2015 – Present

Self-employed

- Tutor college and AP students in Biology, Calculus, Statistics, Psychology, European History and U.S. Government.
- Design custom assignments, lectures, lesson plans and presentations around each student's course and goals.
